

Kim Mixon Spinello
203 Forest Road
Raleigh, NC 27605
678-469-3878
kim.m.spinello@us.pwc.com

July 11, 2010

To whom it may concern,

I first met DJ in College in 1988, we have remained close friends ever since. My earliest experience with DJ as a pet sitter was when he would feed our pet pig for us when we would go out of town. You can believe we were the only college kids with a pet pig in our little college town!

After many more years and a couple of degrees later my husband and I eventually moved from our little college town to a house down the street from where DJ settled in Atlanta. He would take care of our cats when we would go visit my parents in Birmingham. When work took us to Boston for a few years we didn't see a lot of one another but always kept in touch. Eventually we moved back to Atlanta and once again DJ was there to rely on as someone who not only didn't mind taking care of our house and cats but actually enjoyed coming over and spending time with them.

Five years ago, we met Karen, a wonderful woman who would become DJ's wife. It is sad for DJ and Karen that working in Antarctica for half of the year keeps them from having pets of their own. I think this helps explain why they always seem extra attentive and loving towards animals. If you are looking for someone to care for your house and pets at the high standards that you would expect from only yourself, you couldn't make a better choice than DJ and Karen.

Please feel free to call or email me, if you have any questions about DJ and Karen.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kim Spinello". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Kim Spinello